Other Useful Sources

Other books: See books shelved under 711 - town planning and development is a huge subject area and mostly beyond the scope of this listing, however some publications will include elements of sanitation, pollution and public health.

Maps: Ordnance Survey County Series maps can be very useful for comparisons of housing development during the 19th and 20th century and also for identifying slum clearance areas. See editions 1-4 [1858, 1898, 1919, 1939] for Central Gateshead. Held in public cabinets at Gateshead Archive.

Newspapers: The Archive holds a number of 19th and 20th century Gateshead newspapers in addition to over 50 regional titles dating 1700s to present day [listings available]. Available formats range from original to microfilm and digital access. Gateshead Libraries also receive free access to the British Newspaper Archive.

Card catalogue: There are thousands of entries in our card catalogue referencing specific articles and chapters in books, newspapers and other special collections. See entries under 'housing' including housing conditions in specific streets & estates; health [including specific diseases like cholera and general sanitation]; Hancock, Peter [Gateshead's Mr Sanitation!]

Photographs: Visit www.gatesheadlocalstudies.com to view our collection of over 20,000 photographs including the 1930s slum clearance collection [search subject for 'slums' or try individual areas such as Pipewellgate, Hillgate, Barnclose].
