

The University at War 1914-1918: Remembering the Armstrong Building Memorial

Introduction

As we near the centenary of the outbreak of the First World War, it is imperative to remember the lives of the men at Armstrong College who fought and died in the Great War. It is through this that we have created a personal, biographical account of the lives of the men listed on the memorial.

NAME Wallace Moir Annand
BORN 23rd August 1888
DIED 4th June 1915
RANK Lieutenant Commander
SERVICE Royal Navy

Sources:

University Archives, CWGC, Ancestry, Forces War Records Online, The Illustrated Chronicle, Relatives.

Aims and Objectives

- To begin the research on the lives of the 223 men listed on the Armstrong War Memorial to mark the centenary of the First World War.
- To create a personalised biography for each man listed on the Memorial.
- To promote the study of War Memorials and Genealogy.

Conclusions

- The creation and development of the Digital Memory Book teaching resource.
- Continuous progress has been made after the completion of the project through the involvement of the Archaeology Society and the Young Archaeologists Club (YAC).
 - Raised the awareness of the Armstrong Memorial
- Completion of half the biographies of the men listed on the Memorial.

Research Scholarships 2013

Holly Johnson 110126971 h.johnson2@ncl.ac.uk

Ben Howson 110177733 b.howson@ncl.ac.uk

TO THE MEMORY OF THOSE STUDENTS
1914 OF ARMSTRONG COLLEGE 1918
WHO FELL IN THE GREAT WAR