

GOGMAGOG

Gogmagog CD Order Form

Holy Trinity is an impressive, eighteenth century Grade I listed church located in an historic area of Sunderland. The church is under the care and management of the Churches Conservation Trust. No longer used for regular worship, Holy Trinity is in the process of being developed as an important new creative venue for Sunderland.

For his 2018 MCAHE commission at Holy Trinity Church, Gogmagog – The Voices of the Bells, artist Matt Stokes worked with local musicians, singers, choirs and bell ringers to produce a new sound work based on the social history of the building and an original bell peal composition first performed at Holy Trinity Church in 1898. Originally conceived and presented as a sound installation within the Church, Gogmagog is now available as a CD.

To order a free copy of Matt's CD please fill out your details below and return this form by email to mcahe@newcastle.ac.uk

Full Name: _____

Email: _____

Postal Address: _____

Number of CDs required (max. 3 per person): _____