

Conference Programme

Approaches and Tools for Internationalisation at Home

Date and time: 08 September, 2018, 9.15-17.35

Venue: Eurac Research Centre, Viale Druso 1-39100,
Bozen Bolzano, Italy

The conference:

The conference is the final event of the Approaches and Tools for Internationalisation at Home (ATIAH) project, an Erasmus+ Key Action 2 Strategic Partnerships project. The project involves an interdisciplinary consortium from Newcastle University (UK), the University of Bologna (Italy), and KU Leuven (Belgium). The ATIAH project was designed to address Key Priority Area 2 of the European Commission's Communication on European Higher Education in the World: 'Promoting internationalisation at home' (COM/2013/499). ATIAH foregrounds not only the academic, but also the social, intercultural and global learning benefits of an internationalised university experience for students and staff in HE.

- presents the findings from the research phase and the main outputs from the project:
- offers opportunities to present other IaH projects
- initiates a dialogue on 'Engaging the whole institution in IaH'
