Working with LESLLA Learners

This is the introductory module in our suite of online modules.

This module and other modules revolve around what will be referred to as 'LESLLA learners'. This term is based on Literacy Education and Second Language Learning for Adults, an international organization founded in 2005 to bring together researchers, practitioners, and policy makers who share an interest in the development of second language skills by adult immigrants with little or no schooling prior to entering the country in which they have resettled.

Scroll down the page to find the Module you would like to join and click on the title. In the example shown above, it is Working with LESLLA Learners

Enter the Enrolment Key you were sent in your confirmation email in the box shown.

Click on the Enrol me button.

You will receive a welcome email and be taken to the Module home page.

The Module Leads will check for new registrations and enrolments regularly.

Please read the Netiquette guidance document and make an introductory post on the “Building our Community” International Forum found near the top of the module page.

New Module content will become available on a weekly basis (sometimes new weeks are made available ahead of schedule).

Please email support@eu-speak.net if you have any difficulty with Site Registration, Enrolment or viewing the content for Modules.

If you do not wish to receive notification messages by email, it is possible to set your account to not receive emails in the Message Settings section of your account.

If you would like to remove your details completely from the site, this is also an option which can be found in your profile settings. Contact us if you have any difficulty with this.
