

HOUSEHOLD ACTIVITY ANSWER SHEET

STORE ROOM

In here food containers (amphorae and pithoi) were stored. They usually contained olive oil, wine and grain.

Possible people:

Servant with a
basket of fruit

Possible objects:

This is a large pot for mixing wine and water. It would be used at the drinking party and kept in the store room.

This is a large storage pot.

ANDRON

This is the men's room where drinking parties took place.

Possible people:

Someone at a drinking party

Possible objects:

This is a large pot for mixing wine and water. It would be used at the drinking party and kept in the store room.

These are oil lamps for lighting the house.

This is a drinking cup. It would have been used at the drinking party.

KITCHEN

This is where food would have been cooked and prepared. Sometimes food would also be prepared in the courtyard.

Possible people:

Servant with a
basket of fruit

Woman

Possible objects:

These are oil lamps for lighting the house.

This is a portable cooker – it is a bit like a barbecue.

GYNAIKON

This is the women's room where they dressed themselves, looked after their children and made clothes.

Possible people:

Servant with a
basket of fruit

Woman

Baby

Possible objects:

These are oil lamps for lighting the house.

This is a small perfume pot which would have been used by women.

(Gynaikon continued) Possible objects:

This is a mirror which would have been used by women.

This is a gold earring.

These are loom weights. They were used by women when weaving.

This is a knucklebone. It was used in a game.

This is a clay tortoise, which might have been a toy.

(Gynaikon continued) Possible objects:

These are spindle whorls. They were used by women when spinning.

This is a feeding cup for a baby.

COURTYARD

This is the centre of the house where women would spin and weave to make clothes and children may also have played here.

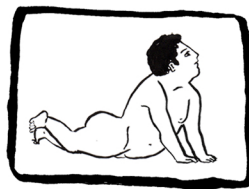

Possible people:

Servant with a
basket of fruit

Woman

Baby

(Courtyard) Possible objects:

These are loom weights. They were used by women when weaving.

This is a knucklebone. It was used in a game.

This is a clay tortoise, which might have been a toy.

These are spindle whorls. They were used by women when spinning.

This is a feeding cup for a baby.

(Courtyard continued) Possible objects:

This is a portable cooker – it is a bit like a barbecue.

WORK ROOM

This is where men would have worked at their craft (e.g. making shoes).

Possible people:

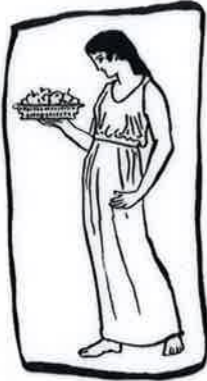

Someone working

Possible objects:

This is a leather sandal.

KITCHEN

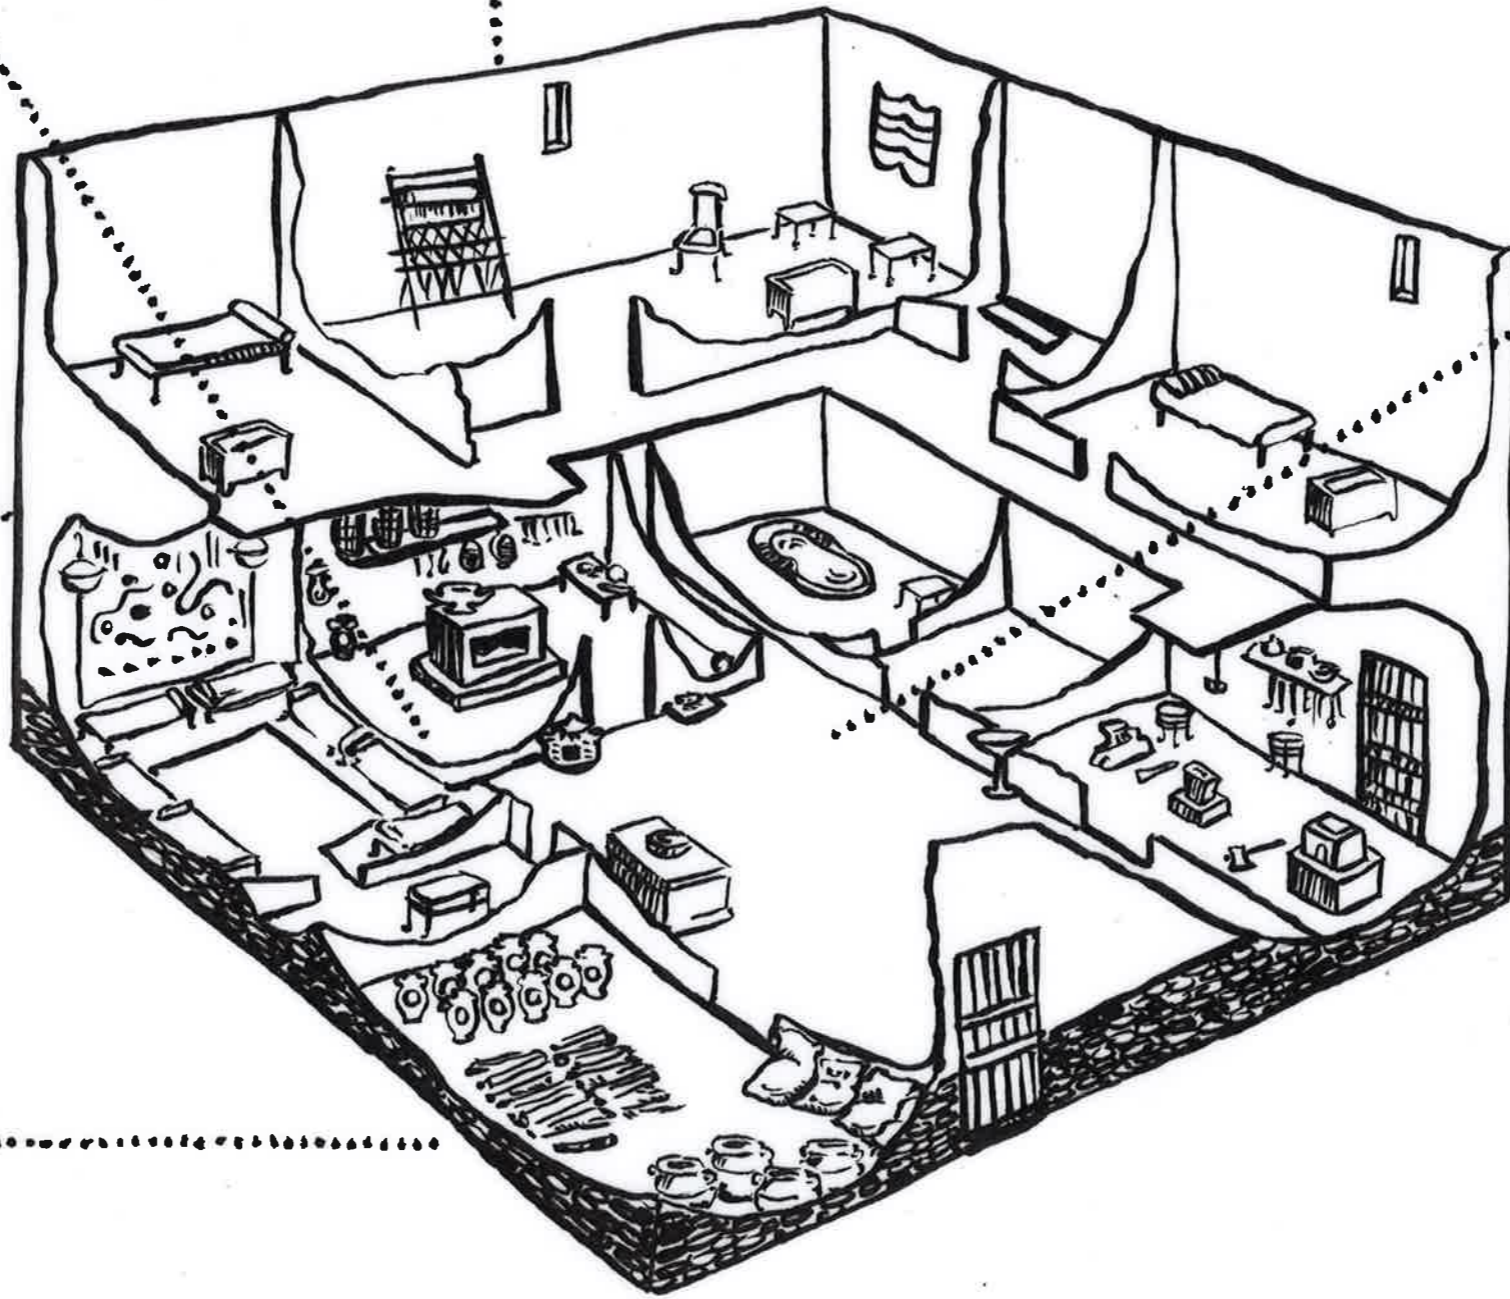

GYNAIKON

ANDRON

STORE ROOM

COURTYARD

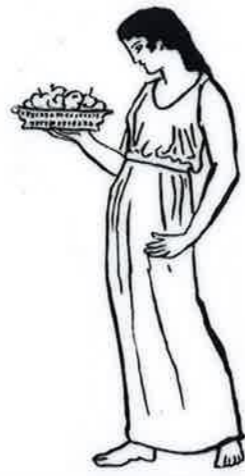

WORK ROOM

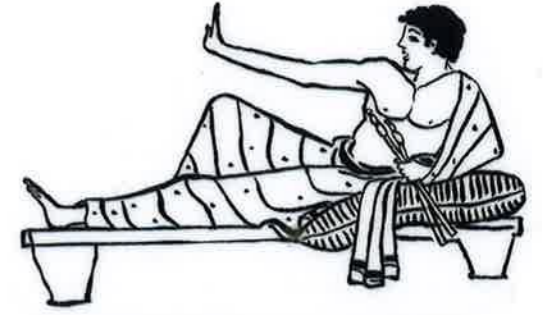

This is a woman.

This is a servant with a basket of fruit.

This is someone working.

This is someone at a drinking party.

This is a large pot for mixing wine and water. It would be used at the drinking party and kept in the store room.

This is a mirror which would have been used by women.

This is an oil lamp for lighting the house.

This is a small perfume pot which would have been used by women.

This is a knucklebone. It was used in a game.

This is a portable cooker – it is a bit like a barbecue.

This is a gold earring.

These are loom weights.

They were used by women when weaving.

This is a clay tortoise, which might have been a toy.

This is a drinking cup, which would have been used at the drinking party.

This is a large storage pot.

This is an oil lamp for lighting the house.

This is a leather sandal.

These are spindle whorls.

They were used by women when spinning.

This is a feeding cup for a baby.

This is a baby.

KITCHEN

This is where food would have been cooked and prepared. Sometimes food would also be prepared in the courtyard.

GYNAIKON

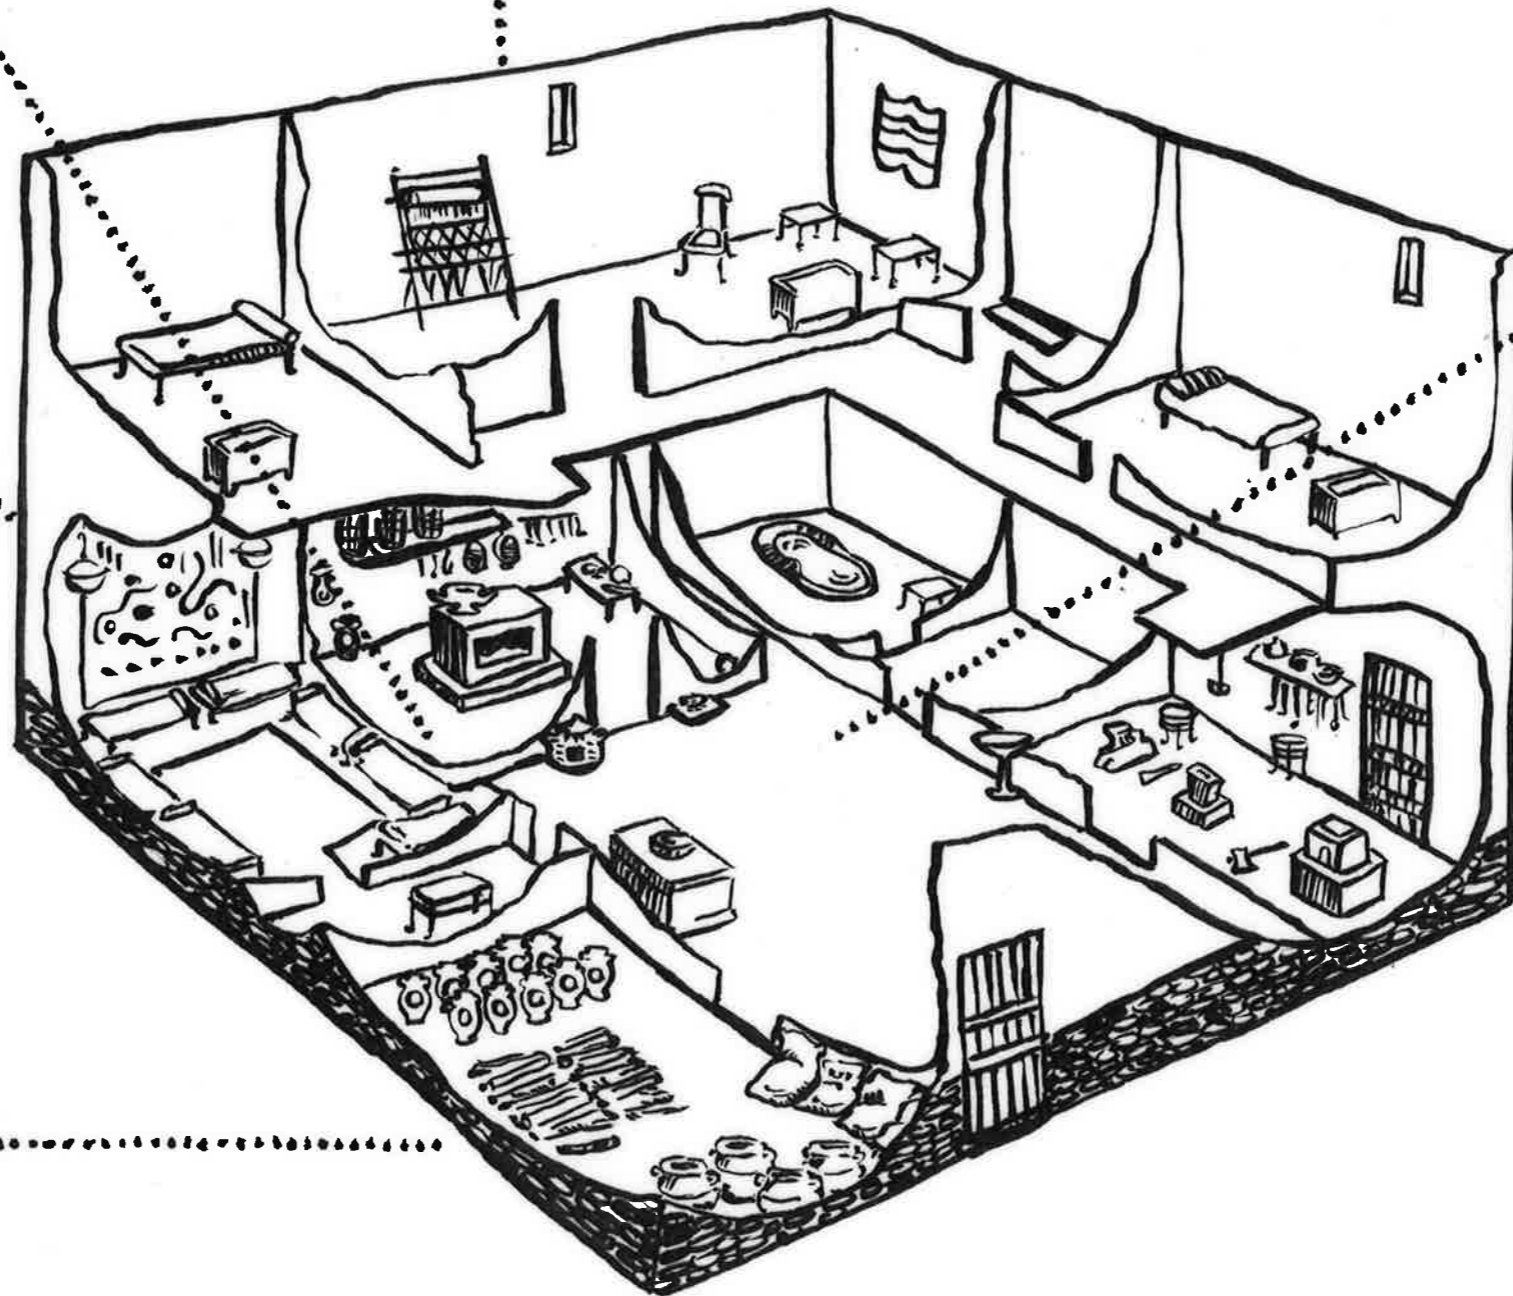

This is the women's room where they dressed themselves, looked after their children and made clothes.

ANDRON

This is the men's room where drinking parties took place.

STORE ROOM

This is where the food and wine was kept.

COURTYARD

This is the centre of the house where women would spin and weave to make clothes and children may also have played here.

WORK ROOM

This is where men would have worked at their craft (e.g. making shoes).