

Translating Cultures Peru / Traduciendo Culturas Perú

Arts & Humanities
Research Council

Centre for Latin American and Caribbean Studies/School of Modern Languages
Newcastle University

Research Seminar

14th April 16.00 - 18.00 OLB 3.14 Pybus Room

“Translating cultures: towards language rights for indigenous peoples in Peru”

Programme

All talks will be in English - questions may be in English and Spanish

16.00 - 16.30 pm

Agustín Panizo, Director, Indigenous Languages Division, Ministry of Culture, Peru. “From the monolingual to the multilingual State: language rights of indigenous peoples in Peru”

16.30 - 17.15 pm

Luis Andrade, Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú. “The complex role of indigenous translators and interpreters in Peru”

Raquel de Pedro Ricoy, Heriot-Watt University. “Community interpreting from the Peruvian perspective”

Rosaleen Howard, Newcastle University. “Translating the language of the law into Peru’s indigenous languages”

17.15 - 17.45 pm Discussion

17.45 - 18.00 pm Wine reception

ALL ARE WELCOME!