

TraPCAf virtual training series

GENETICS COUNSELLING: Return of results from genetic studies in Africa

Professor Henry Houlden
Professor of Neurology, University College London
Queen Square Institute of Neurology

Henry leads a neurogenetics clinic and research laboratory at UCL with specific interest in inherited neurological disorders and movement disorders.

Dr Sarah Urasa
Neurologist & Director of Medical Services, Kilimanjaro Christian Medical College, Moshi

Sarah is a practicing neurologist at KCMC, a referral hospital in Tanzania, lecturer at KCMUCo and Co-Investigator on TraPCAf.

15TH JAN 2025 12-2 GMT

FUTURE TOPICS

Statistics session 2 - 21ST MARCH

Health economics - TBC

Statistics session 3 - TBC

h.houlden@ucl.ac.uk
sarah_u76@yahoo.com

<https://newcastleuniversity.zoom.us/j/83111293225>

www.linkedin.com/in/trapcaf-project

www.research.ncl.ac.uk/trapcaf

www.x.com/trapcaf_project

