

Four Urban Commons

Methodologies for Engagement

Wastes and Strays: the past present and future of English urban commons a 3-year AHRC-funded research project

Bringing together representatives, stakeholders and users of urban commons with experts in open space management and methods of public engagement.

The University of Brighton School of Architecture and Design
with the Centre for Spatial, Environmental and Cultural Politics

Tuesday 9th July 2019

Room 318b, Grand Parade
Brighton, BN2 0JY

12.00 Opens [Lunch for invitees]

12.30 Introductions

Alessandro Zambelli (for host institution and as 'Future' Co-Investigator)
Chris Rodgers (Project Introduction from the Principal Investigator)

12.45 Common Conversations (reps from each common in conversation)

- Town Moor and Household Heath (with Chris Rodgers and Rachel Hammersley) (30mins)
- Valley Gardens and Clifton Down (with John Clark and Alessandro Zambelli) (30mins)

2.00 Common Talk (chair Emma Cheatle)

- All 'commons' representatives (30mins)

University of Brighton
Centre for Spatial, Environmental and Cultural Politics

2.45 Talking Engagement (chair Alessandro Zambelli)

- Nicola Hodgson (Open Spaces Society) (20mins)
- Duncan MacKay (Natural England) (20mins)
- Nick Gant (Community 21) (20mins)

4.00 Making Engagement (Parallel workshops with coffee/tea)

- Group 1 (45mins)
- Group 2 (45mins)
- Group 3 (45mins)

Newcastle University

UNIVERSITY OF EXETER

The University Of Sheffield.

4.45 Re-talking Engagement

Report back: 'common methods'
(co-chaired by all Wastes and Strays Investigators and Post-docs)

5.30 Close

Contact: Alessandro Zambelli a.zambelli@brighton.ac.uk

Arts & Humanities
Research Council