

Ways Ahead

Improving Support for People with Brain Tumours

In partnership with:

The Newcastle upon
Tyne Hospitals
NHS Foundation Trust

The Ways Ahead project team is collaborating with specialist NHS sites to improve the provision of support and information and halve the harm that brain tumours have on quality-of-life.

Are you?

- A healthcare professional who is part of a multi-disciplinary team, involved in the care of brain tumour patients (e.g. Medics, Clinical nurse specialists, Psychologists).

OR

- A professional who is involved in the support of brain tumour patients outside of NHS care pathways (e.g. Counsellors, Benefits advisors, Social workers).

Would you?

- Like to have your say on the physical, psychological, and social consequences of having a brain tumour.
- Like to have your say on the support needs of people living with a brain tumour.
- Like to help us develop new ideas to help support people living with a brain tumour to self-manage their condition.

Could you?

- Take part in an interview

If you are interested in taking part, please get in touch using the details provided.

We will ask a few questions to assess whether you are eligible to take part.

If you are then an interview will be arranged.
